Club Business/Announcements:

- President Val welcomed one and all to our Gala Club meeting to install the new Board of Directors for the Centennial Year of 2004-2005.

- Breakfast.
- Outgoing President Val Stephenson took a look back at the year now ended: while membership numbers were up and down our fellowship and dedication never wavered. We began new projects at home and abroad. We sponsored a summer reading program at our Library. We had hikes and barbecues, hoe-downs and a day at the races. We had pizza and movies at Klahanie. The Rockridge Interact Club was founded and took off like a rocket! We WineFested and Operation Red Nosed. We had Seniors to the Christmas Luncheon and met them at Klahanie to socialize. We had Club socials at members' residences and fellowship galore. We sponsored the Avalon Society and the Summer Work Experience program, we sponsored Scholarships and Destination Imagination. We gambled and danced at Casino Night/All That Jazz, sponsored Youth Week in our community and cleaned up a traffic circle for a Rotary park project. We had Shake Shacks and RYLA. We had a great year thanks to all the Members!

- President Val presented Peter Ackhurst with a cheque for $500.00 in Gillian Ackhurst' memory, to be used for a youth shelter in Dar Es Salaam, Tanzania.

- Honorary Sunriser and West Vancouver Rotarian Jacci McTavish inducted the Rotary West Vancouver Sunrise Board of Directors for 2004-2005: Club President Janice Bosley, Secretary Robert Crozier (in absentia), Treasurer Hendrik van der Walt, Community Service Val Stephenson, Club Service Mark Ferrari, International Service Marko Borck, Youth/Vocational Service Klaus Rudert, President-elect (in absentia) Ken Wilson and Sergeant Jim Wright.

- President Janice thanked one and all for their support. The Rotary year 2004-2005 is, of course, the Centennial of Rotary International and Janice expressed her confidence that the year will be a great one filled with fun, Service and success. While some aspects of the year are still in the planning stage our agenda will be full and rewarding, combining our regular Club events with projects in our Community and Internationally both on our own and with our fellow Rotarians on the North Shore and around the world.

- District Governor Mary Watson presented President Val with the Rotary Presidential Citation for the Club.
- The Club Board of Directors moved that: the Club change the name of its' corporate identity to: The Rotary Club of West Vancouver Sunrise Foundation. Moved: Mark, Seconded: Nico. The Board voted unanimously in favour.

50/50/happy/sad:

No winners, no losers.

F.l.t.r.: Val, Marko, Hendrik, Klaus, Mark, Jim and Janice.

Meeting adjourned.
