

Rotary Donation to the Lions Gate Hospital Foundation

WEST VANCOUVER, June 16, 2009 – The Rotary Club of West Vancouver Sunrise will be donating $5,000 to the Lions Gate Hospital Foundation on Thursday, June 18, at their regular breakfast meeting, 7:15 – 8:30 am at Rene’s Restaurant, Park Royal South. (Use the entrance by the Bank of Montreal.) The Rotary Club recently raised the funds at their Spring Fling fund raiser on April 25..

Judy Savage, President, of the Lions Gate Hospital Foundation will be available to accept the cheque and make a short presentation about the status of the Hospice and their other fundraising efforts. The funds are being donated for the North Shore Hospice in memory of Val Stephenson.

The Spring Fling was a fun event with great food and fantastic live and silent auctions. A special thank you goes to the event sponsor, the North Shore News, and to the many organizations and individuals who donated auction items and services. .

The Rotary Club of West Vancouver Sunrise has served the North Shore since 1989 providing hands-on service and fundraising for community and international projects. See www.rotarywestvancouver sunrise.org for more information, or call Janice Bosley at 604-921-7583. Guests are always welcome to attend our Thursday morning meetings.
